Newton D. Baker, Former Cleveland Mayor, Appointed Secretary of War

ONLY RECENTLY CONVERTED TO THE PRE-PAREDNESS POLICY—WAS FIRST PROM-INENT IN WORLD-FAMED FIGHT FOR THREE-CENT CAR-FARE RATES.

(By International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, March.—Newton D. Baker, a former mayor of the city of Cleveland, O., has been appointed by President Wilson as the new secretary of war to succeed former-Secretary Garrison.

Secretary Baker only recently became converted to the preparedness theory, but now is in full sympathy with the views of the chief executive. It is understood, he first gained prominence as a solicitor under Major Johnson, of Cleveland, in the world-famed fight for three-cent car-fare rates.

FAMOUS TEUTON RAIDER RETURNS TO GERMANY

(By International News Service.)

BERLIN, March 6.—Count von Dohna Schlodian and the crew of the famous Teuton commerce raider, Meowe, which has returned to her home port despite the desperate efforts of the Allies' war vessels, are the heroes of the hour in Germany.
They will receive iron crosses and many other honors.

All Berlin newspapers laud the exploits of the ship to the skies and point out that other swift raiders can successfully evade the British fleet and cripple belligerent commerce much as the Meowe did.
She captured or destroyed 15 ships during her eventful cruise.

HOTEL GUESTS CAPTURE NOTORIOUS NEGRO THIEF

DESPERATE STRUGGLE
BEFORE MISCREANT
IS SAFELY SECURED

AFTER ROBBING MORE THAN 50
HOMES, HOUSE-BREAKER IS AP-PREHENDED WHILE ENTERING SCHMIDT'S HOTEL.

David Pen, one of the most notorious burglars ever caught operating in the city of Daytona, was apprehended at 11 o'clock Saturday night by Henry Schmidt and a party of guests while attempting to enter the hotel. After a desperate struggle lasting 15 minutes, the negro thief was carried bodily into the hostelry and forcibly held until the arrival of Chief Milton.

Pen is the perpetrator of unnum-bered crimes, among them the sacking of more than 50 houses in and near Daytona. Practically every one of the numerous robberies reported in the last three months have now been traced to him. His capture will go down in the annals of police history.

Story of Capture.

When the case was turned over from the mayor's court this morning to the court to the justice of the peace, Henry Schmidt, proprietor of Schmidt's hotel made the following statement: "I was in the office counting my cash turned in during the day. Most of the lights in the building were out and many of the guests had retired. It was exactly five minutes to 11:00 o'clock when I heard a yell from the yard. Somebody called, 'Help! help! Four gentlemen who were just about to go up to bed, rushed out with me. Before I left the building, I stuffed the cash in my pocket.

"As we reached the side of the house, we saw two struggling figures moving toward the gate. All five of us grabbed the negroes. One was

VERDUN IS NOW SAFE, SAY MILITARY EXPERTS

(By International News Service.)

PARIS, March 6.—According to the official report issued by the French war office, artillery duels continued throughout the night around Verdun, but no infantry action of any consequence took place. The fire of the heavy guns was particularly severe along the left bank of the Meuse river. In Argonne, the French also bombarded the German positions at various points.

Military experts now declare the stronghold of Verdun is safe and that the Teuton offensive has practically exhausted itself. According to officials the whole drive has ended in complete and disheartening failure. Dutch advices announce that the army of the Kaiser is seeking for another point of attack somewhere along the western front, having practically given up hope of accomplishing anything more at Verdun.

RUSSIAN SHIPS ATTACK IMPORTANT BLACK SEA PORT

(By International News Service.)

PETROGRAD, March 6.—Several Russian torpedo boats have furiously bombarded Trebizond, an important port of Turkey on the Black sea.
Several Turkish vessels anchored in the harbor have been sunk as a result. The attacking fleet escaped without so much as a scratch, though fired upon by the land batteries, according to dispatches received here today.

GUESTS WIN FROM ORMOND REGULARS

HOTEL ORMOND, Ormond Beach, March 4.—The scheduled game of baseball between Hotel Ormond Guests and the Hotel Ormond Regular team occurred on Friday afternoon, March 3rd, at 3:30.

The line-up was as follows:
Hotel Ormond Guests—Harvey, 2b; Stearns, rf.; Barclay, ss.; Geo. Watson, 1b; Dieter, lf.; Archer, 3b; Tulley, catcher; Bill Chase, pitcher. Utility: Johnson, A. W. Cameron, J. Adriance. Captain, manager and umpire, Frank L. Connable; director, D. L. Anderson.

Owing to the lateness in starting only 7 innings were played. Score resulted 8 to 7 in favor of the guests. It was a closely contested game as the score would indicate. Thanks to the umpire for his good judgment on close decisions.

D. L. Anderson, director, gave an impromptu speech in the middle of the game, and quite a sum was realized for the benefit of the home team.

The features of the game would include the brilliant fielding of the 3rd baseman, James Archer (of the Chicago Cubs), the excellent pitching by Bill Chase, and the all-around work of Mr. Barclay, shortstop. Mr. Harvey also deserves special mention in his slide to second base, which he made safe, but unfortunately the ball thrown from the catcher to the second baseman caught him on the upper part of the left ear, which did some damage and compelled him to retire from the game. George Watson showed considerable speed in covering centerfield, and his brother on first base, which not so effective at the bat, was able to catch anything within reach of his station. Everybody had a good time.

G. A. Creighton, Lynn, Mass., is registered at the Ormond.

Mrs. Rosewell Miller and Mrs. Wm. G. Roberts, of New York city, are registered at the Ormond.

J. Newman Munson, of Baltimore, Md., has arrived at the Ormond for several weeks' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bassett, Evanston, Ill., will spend some time at the Ormond.

A very agreeable party from Harrisburg, Pa., who have arrived at the Ormond for a stay of some length, is composed of the following names: Mrs. W. E. Wright, Mrs. E. G. Gross, Mrs. Henry McCormick and Miss McCormick.

Mrs. C. M. T. Neftel, New York city, is registered at the Ormond.

Mrs. Edith Smith, Morristown, N. J., will spend some time at the Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Tewksbury, of Cleveland, Ohio, are stopping at the Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Spedder, Tuxedo Park, N. Y., are registered at the Ormond.

A very pleasant party who will spend sometime at the Ormond is composed of the following names: Miss Margaret Winslow, Miss Margaret Allen, Miss Ellen Rollins, Miss Hilda Greenleaf, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Greenleaf, and Miss J. M. Rowell.

BROOKLYN NATIONALS SHOW MUCH PEP IN FIRST PRACTICE GAME

MIXES IT UP A BIT WITH HOTEL
CLARENDON TEAM—MANAGER
ROBINSON APPARENTLY PLEASED WITH SHOWING MADE.

Amid the usual turmoil of excitement and interest which is ordinarily manifested on the occasion of a first-day practice game, the Brooklyn Superbas began the fray with the Clarendon Hotel team Saturday afternoon with much enthusiasm before quite a spirited crowd of fans.

The weather was a bit chilly for best advantages in playing, yet a brisk run around the field and warming up in other manners, enabled the men to get in some extra good work.

Louis McCarty apparently had an advantage over his less fortunate opponent and team-mate, Mack Wheat, inasmuch as he was allowed to select the majority of his men from the regulars in "choosing sides", while the wily catcher took the leavings and filled in with the Hotel Clarendon team members.

Although handicapped in this manner, Wheat's team made a good showing throughout the entire seven innings of play, the final score being 11 to 4 in favor of the regulars.

Be it said to the credit of one Edward J. Kenney, of the Clarendon team, that he was a star in every sense of the word as two hits and two runs in as many times at bat will testify, besides gobbling up everything his short stature would allow him to reach in the right garden. Uncle Wilbert Robinson, the manager of the Nationals, kept a keen eye on this local man throughout the game.

The batting of Olson and Miller featured the game, yet hefty Ump Riegler at second, created no less a sensation for his sprinting ability after the "hot" ones. Colwell and Appleton were on the mound and handled the pill in great shape without the use of curves. Manager Robinson will turn them loose early next week on the twisters and it is then that Colwell expects to experiment on some of his new ones. Both pitchers fielded their positions well.

Ivan Olson and Jimmie Hickman came in for their share of the honors in the game, the former for his sensational base-running and heavy slugging; the latter for beating out bunts and place-hitting.

No little interest was evidenced in the excellent pair of "umps" for the game and, under the experienced direction of John Scholl, of New York City, and J. Michaels, of Brooklyn, the game progressed in great style. Mr. Scholl manifested much interest in the afternoon's work and directed his decisions in quite a familiar manner.

Today is an off day with the players and the day will be spent more in rest and participation in the various forms of amusements to be had in Daytona and on the beach.

Sunday was an off day with the players and the day was spent more in rest and participation in the various forms of amusements to be had in Daytona and on the beach.

HELP THE OTHER FELLOW—HE CAN HELP YOU

That has not been adopted as the slogan of our Association, but it exemplifies the spirit of the organization. They seem to have the belief that "the other fellow" is of the same mind, and that every one is going to do his level best to make ALLANDALE a town of tomorrow.

PUBLIC SPIRIT

There are many towns that lack this most necessary element to inspire one to do his best.

We have the will to do things in ALLANDALE — everybody wants to help. If we prosper it will not be due to our optimism, but to the broad point of view that includes our neighbor's success with ours.

WESTERN UNION ANNOUNCES
AN EXTENSIVE SERVICE

During the past few years the Western Union Telegraph Company has been in the van of public service corporations in putting out new services to meet modern business and social demands. The company now announces another innovation for the benefit of its patrons. The Western Union Company annually transfers by telegraph an enormous amount of money and heretofore the senders of money have not been permitted to include in the transfers any communication of a business or personal character to the payee, such information being required to be sent by separate message.

Under the new arrangements, however, transfers between points in the United States may include such information and the same will be delivered to the payee at the time the transfer is paid. This surely represents an up-to-date service and one that should appeal to and be of much value to business houses and the public generally. Through it, people will be enabled to transmit money quickly with proper instructions to meet banking obligations, pay insurance policies, guarantee purchases, accompany bids, purchase railroad, steamship and theater tickets, pay taxes, assessments and bills of all descriptions, make remittances to travelling salesmen and pupils attending distant schools, etc. There is practically no limit to the purposes for which this service is available. The Telegraph Company, is to be commended upon the manner in which it is broadening the scope and purposes of its various services in order to better meet the needs of the public.

2 FINE ATTRACTIONS AT METHODIST CHURCH

The next number in the Tourist Bible Class lecture course will be held Tuesday evening at the Daytona Beach Methodist church. This is the surprise number, and is one of the best yet given on the list of entertainments.

Miss Pearl Carpenter, president of the Story Tellers' League, of Cincinnati, will tell one of the famous stories written by Leo Tolstol, the great Russian reformer and novelist. Miss Carpenter is noted for her ability at telling pleasing stories of interest, and has a large number of human interest tales at her command.

In addition to the above attraction one of equal quality will be A. H. Whitford, secretary of the combined Y. M. C. A. of Buffalo, N. Y. He will deliver the excellent travelogue, "From the Arctic Circle to the Dead Sea." Mr. Whitford is an able platform man, with a clear, well-modulated voice, and a fund of information and experience that makes him a very fascinating lecturer.

The entertainment will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, and will most surely be worth the comparatively small price of admission, which is 25 cents.

HENRY POLLITZ GETS TREAS. NOMINATION

A second caucus was held Saturday afternoon at the Daytona Beach town hall on Harvey street. The only new man put up for election was Henry G. Pollitz, who was nominated for town treasurer.

Mr. Pollitz is a very popular young business man, a resident of Orange avenue, and at present a valued employee in the Merchants Bank of Daytona.

He has scores of friends who will be pleased to cast their vote in his favor and who think him a very worthy man for the office. He feels confident of election if his friends support him. Opposing him on the ticket is J. H. Selden.

SEABREEZE PERSONALS

Mrs. U. S. Gilbert and Miss L. M. Gilbert, of Watertown, N. Y., are in Seabreeze and are stopping at the Princess Issena.

W. B. Powell, of Seabreeze, expects to leave this afternoon or tomorrow for Sanford to look after his interests at his farm there.

Great plans are being laid for a dance at the Nautilus Casino later in the week, to be held for the ball teams of the Clarendon and Ormond hotels.

The ladies of the Princess Issena were busily engaged Saturday morning in making sanitary sponges for the American-French Wounded society.

Mrs. S. Ullman has left for her home in the north after enjoying a stay of some length in Seabreeze guest of the Princess Issena. Mrs. Ullman will visit in Aiken, S. C., en route home.

Skinner has returned to his home in Chicago, Ill., after a pleasant stay in Seabreeze, guest of the Princess Issena. Mrs. Skinner will remain at the Princess Issena for the balance of the season.

Miss Ethel Sholtz came over to spend the week-end at her home on the Ocean bluff above the Clarendon hotel, Saturday, and has returned to Stetson today to take up her regular work in the university.

Ed Wilmington came in Saturday night to visit at home with his wife and son on the ocean front for a few weeks. Mr. Wilmington is the traveling representative of the Bon Witt Teller Hat company of Chicago, and has a beautiful home here.

Miss Marguerite Wissner, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is staying the Sholtz home in Seabreeze for a few days. Miss Wissner is the daughter of Mr. Wissner of the Wissner Piano Co., of Brooklyn, N. Y., and her parents are staying at the Prince George.

After a most enjoyable stay in Seabreeze, guests of the Hotel Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Endicott have returned to their home in Massachusetts. Mr. Endicott is a well known business man, being a partner of the Johnson-Endicott Shoe Manufacturing establishment at Endicott, N. Y. They were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who have a handsome winter residence on Peninsula drive North and their stay in Seabreeze was enjoyed to the utmost.

A delightful social event of last evening was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Potter, at the grill of the Hotel Clarendon. Covers were laid for fourteen at the daintily appointed table which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with spring flowers. An elaborate course dinner was served. Following the dinner, the party enjoyed dancing until a late hour. Those enjoying the hospitality of the charming host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Keeney, Mr. and Mrs. Embush, Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schlossinger, Mr. and Mrs. Uehlein, Mrs. Roller and Douglas Giele.

What He Thinks Remarkable.
"Do you think there is anything remarkable in love at first sight?" asked the romantic youth. "Not at all," answered the cynic. "It's when people have been looking at each other for four or five years that it becomes remarkable."—Pearson's Weekly

DAYTONA BEACH LOCALS

Thos. R. Simpson, who has sold his river front home, is planning to move to his newly purchased Marshall Park home in Daytona Beach in a few weeks' time.

Among the recent arrivals at the Seaside Inn are Miss Helen Hansen, of New York; E. W. Haverline, N. Erhardt, of Minneapolis, Minn.; H. Milos, of Kissimmee and W. R. Rogers of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Turner, of Sanford, motored over Sunday to spend a few days at the beach visiting their many friends here. They will return to their Sanford home shortly after enjoying the pleasures and sports of the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Badgely, who has been spending some time in Daytona Beach at one of the local hotels, has returned from a trip to the interior and will stay for the remainder of the season until their spring return to their northern home in Terre Haute, Ind.

Roy Tucker and Fred Amason have returned from Miami, where they have been completing a job of structural painting for the last few weeks. They left Daytona Beach about a month ago after finishing the painting of the municipal water tower and tank in lower Daytona Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Herndon came over from their home in Sanford, Sunday afternoon, to visit for a few days at the home of Mrs. Herndon's aunt, Mrs. Margaret Malloy, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Herndon have hosts of friends here who are always glad to have them come over to the beach.

A party of six at the Seaside Inn left this morning to spend the day on a trip to St. Augustine and return. The ladies composing the party were Mrs. W. Stoll, Mrs. R. Stoll, Mrs. John Lyle, Mrs. J. K. Lyle, Mrs. Barnes and friend. They expect to return to the beach tonight after a pleasant day's trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryant, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who have been touring the southern part of the state, arrived Saturday and are stopping at the Seaside Inn. They were very much pleased with the southern resorts and will spend some time in Daytona Beach before returning to their northern home.

Mrs. E. K. Walker and family and mother, Mrs. Hamilton, of Waterbury, Conn., have recently arrived and are now staying at the Walker home on Hollywood avenue. They have been spending the fore part of the winter at Orlando, but have come over to the beach where they are to experience some "real" weather before their return to the north.

Mr. and Mrs. Weinrich and daughter, Marie, also Mr. and Mrs. E. Meyer, have returned to their home in Cincinnati, after a delightful sojourn at the Seaside Inn. Mr. Weinrich was a champion fisherman and thoroughly enjoyed this sport off Keating's ocean pier during his stay on the beach. They are very much infatuated with this resort and are planning to return next season.

The following reference from the Gloucester Times, will be of interest to the friends of Mr. Publicover, a guest of the Seaside Inn, who has made a number of flights with Ruth Law in her aeroplane. Mr. Publicover informs the Times that he is very much taken with aviation and plans the establishment of an aviation bus line. He plans to have the hangar and landing place at the Rockaway and has already completed a deal with John A. Dedovich for the building of a sea wall at Rocky Neck property with this purpose in view, so that Gloucester may actually see a real aviation station here. Mr. Publicover is a live awake and experienced hotel man of Gloucester. He has a wide circle of friends in Daytona Beach and its credit to our vicinity to have such a noted man here.

SCHOOL NOTES

Pole vaulting is one of the crazes of the present week at the school. Some of the boys have made excellent marks with their comparatively inadequate equipment. They hope to reach a mark of over eight feet on Field Day.

Preparations for Field Day were urged by Professor Wakefield at the regular chapel exercises this morning. He asked the boys to practice thoroughly the 50-yard dash and other short races, as well as jumping, hurdling and like athletics. The exact date of Field Day will be announced later.

Springtime and marbles, always come hand in hand. As usual, the level spots around the school houses are crowded at recess and noon time, with interested players and spectators. Many of the boys are bold enough to play for "keeps," and those lucky ones who are expert at the knuckle down game, are going around with full pockets.

"The Sand Crab," the high school annual, is almost ready for the press. It is expected to be ready for sale about the middle part of next week. All are anxious for its coming in order to compare its merits with the "Sentinel" of Daytona, which has recently made its appearance. The "Crabs" of this year will be larger than their predecessors, and will have many pages of interesting pictures as well as the usual excellency of reading matter. An extra large printing will be made to furnish all demands for sale.

NOTED SINGER APPEARS AT SEABREEZE BAPTIST CHURCH

Mrs. Birdelia Belle Conat Irving, of Cleveland, Ohio, sang a very beautiful solo at the First Baptist church of Seabreeze, Sunday morning. Mrs. Irving, who is visiting for a short time in Daytona, kindly consented to sing, on request, and the pleasing selection which was so well rendered, was a soprano solo, "The Lord Is My Light," by Francis Alltison.

T. R. SIMPSON PURCHASES MARSHALL PARK BUNGALOW

W. W. Marshall has sold one of his newly erected bungalows on Vermont avenue, Marshall Park, to Thos. R. Simpson, of Seabreeze. This house is of stucco finish, and is the first house from Peninsula Drive on the north side of the street. Mr. Simpson has recently sold his home in Seabreeze on the river front.

WELL KNOWN BUFFALO MAN SPEAKS AT M. E. CHURCH

A. H. Whitford, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of Buffalo, N. Y., spoke at a large and appreciative audience, Sunday morning, at the Tourist Bible Class of the Daytona Beach Methodist church. He referred to the Holy Land as holy because of its associations with Christ, but as being unholy under its present regime, that of Turkey. His address was especially interesting because of personal reminiscences of his trip over the "Jericho Road."

Shakespeare's Legs.

There is no authority for the opinion that Shakespeare had one of his legs broken in a drunken brawl outside of a sonnet written by Marlowe, himself a brilliant debauchee and notorious liar. Apart from Marlowe's diatribe, there is nothing to show that the great dramatist had a broken or deformed leg.

The "SILENT SMITH"

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearing; Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8. Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating. There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Feeder Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained—ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior service.

GUESTS CAPTURE A NEGRO THIEF

my porter and the other an unknown man. He attempted to break away, and succeeded in getting as far as the edge of my grounds, when one of the guests, a sheriff of Kings county, caught him by the throat. We fairly carried him into the hotel lobby and sat him down in a chair.

"By that time nearly all the inmates of the hotel had run down stairs, attracted by the scuffle and shouting. Many thought it an alarm of fire. That nigger was some scrapper! Even when he was surrounded by a dozen or more people and before I could get to the telephone to summon the police, he broke through the group, dashed into the dining room, threw a gentleman guarding the door, to the floor, and ran for the kitchen. We caught him before he got out of the room, however, and held him forcibly until Chief Milton arrived."

The Porter's Story.

The colored porter was then summoned to the stand. After being sworn, he said:

"I was just ready to leave for the night, and had asked Mr. Schmidt if there was anything more I could do. Then I went through the kitchen and out the back way. I guess I must have walked pretty quiet; I had on rubber-soled shoes. Before I knew it, I nearly ran into a man playing a flashlight on the window of room number 9. When he heard me he threw the light in my face and I grabbed him. I hung on, but he dragged me toward the gate. He was a big man and mighty strong. Then I yelled for help and Mr. Schmidt and the guests rushed out. He gave them a job, I can tell you, before they landed him safe in the living-room."

Many More Robberies to His Credit.
 Later, one Evans Berry, a colored chef, working in a Daytona restaurant and living in Midway, told his story. It seems on the night of February 21, a thief entered his room and stole a watch and cuff links. Berry found the cuff links next morning, but the watch was not discovered until Chief Milton took the same out of Pen's pocket before committing him to jail.

A colored man by the name of Whitehead, who owns a home in Midway, testified he had rented Pen a room some little time ago—about two months—he said. During the weeks that followed, he noticed his boarder returned at night with the most generous assortment of chickens, eggs, cuts of meat, and occasionally clothes. A number of articles were later found in Pen's room and brought into court, all of which were identified easily as stolen property.

Bound Over on $1,050 Bond.

After the evidence was submitted, Justice of the Peace Hobbs bound over his prisoner for trial before the criminal court, in DeLand on a bond of $1,050, in default of which the negro was returned to jail. The original charge was made by Mr. Schmidt, but enough additional charges followed to insure a long and busy term for Pen in the convict pen.

It seems he has broken into more than 50 houses in Daytona, securing an unestimable amount of plunder, a very small part of which has been discovered.

For at least two months Pen has been systematically robbing this city. One prominent Beach street resident told of being disturbed at midnight by the banging of a screen door. Upon investigation, he could find nobody, but the next morning, his butler reported the loss of several more or less valuable articles of clothes.

McDougall, district passenger agent for the Illinois Central railroad, who is making his headquarters at the Despland hotel, in the interest of travel northward over that road, states that commencing tonight the Seminole Limited will have three standard sleepers, each with two compartments, one drawing room and ten sections, making six compartments, three drawing rooms and thirty sections on this train every night, for the accommodation of its northbound passengers.

DAYTONA IDEAL PLACE TO SPEND THE WINTER SEASON

B. B. Sheffield, of the B. B. Sheffield Milling company, of Minneapolis, Minn., who is a company with Mrs. Sheffield, guest at the Hotel Clarendon, finds Daytona very much to his liking. Mr. Sheffield says he has spent two winters in California, and has visited various places in Florida, as far south as Key West, and also Havana and Santiago, Cuba, and none of them compare with Daytona, which he considers the ideal place to spend the winter season, both because of the fine climate and the variety of entertainment it affords.

GEM CITY MINSTRELS ATTRACTION FRIDAY

LOCAL ORGANIZATION OF FUN-MAKERS INCLUDE MUCH BRIL-LIANT TALENT IN COMEDY AND MUSIC.

In many ways the coming week at the New Daytona theater promises to be the most entertaining and satisfying of the season. After much persuading, Manager Thomason has agreed to reproduce the Gem City Minstrels on the night of Friday, March 10th. The presence of brilliant local talent, has long lingered in the memory of the homefolk, and it is certain that the visitors will carry back home with them the same cherished thoughts that, while in Daytona, they saw a "sure enough" minstrel show, presented by the boys of the Sunny Southland, well known enough, locally, to enjoy the ranking of stars. New songs, new jokes, in fact, everything on the stroke of twelve, combined with the snap and dash that the boys put in their work, has placed them in a position where, critics say, they would hold themselves in big company.

"Laugh and the World Laughs With You," Sheriff Wright, the premier comedian, will certainly make you do this, and then some. You will laugh until tears come; you will roll in your seat; you will hollow; you will scream. Sheriff is certainly the laugh compounder. When Sheriff is through, his side partner, A. J. Malby, another comedian of local reputation, will carry you along in laughter until you come to the conclusion that Daytona has two comedians that would do credit to any place and could make good in any company.

Otis Pellicier is the king of interlopers. Otis is a local boy, who has charmed his many friends with that sweet tenor voice. It was reported that Otis, some time ago, was made a very flattering offer to take up minstrelsy as a profession. Assisting in this production is quite an array of talent, comprising the following: Messrs. Shaw, Miller, Parsons, Smith, Mills, Spina, McDonald, Cowan, Duckworth, Pollitz, Dohm, Erickson, Vincent, Evernden, Cagney, Niver and, last, but not least, Sheffield Wright, Jr., whose sweet little songs captivate all who are fortunate enough to hear this young wonder.

Then, again, it should be borne in mind, the proceeds are for a good cause, baseball. This is an entertainment by those whose duty it is to remain here during the summer months, while the tourists are enjoying the good things of the north and east. A "blown in the bottle" guarantee that all will have one enjoyable evening in funland, which will all to their winter pleasures.

Seats are now on sale at the Hankins drug store, corner of Volusia avenue and Beach street.

GEORGE F. JOHNSON BUYS SPEED BOAT "SWASTIKET"

Geo. F. Johnson, of Endicott, N. Y., and winter resident of Seabreeze, is now the owner of the speed boat "Swastiket," having purchased the craft Friday from W. E. Blodgett. Mr. Johnson saw the Swastiket when Mr. Blodgett had her out recently, liked her action and made a proposition for her purchase which Mr. Blodgett accepted.

"Owing to ill health will sell my new brick residence with every modern improvement, corner Ocean boulevard and Duke street, Daytona Beach; also cottage, 135 North Ridgewood avenue, both in excellent order and a real bargain. No reasonable offer refused. W. M. Shaffner, Daytona Beach. 66&m-w&s-tf

COMMODORE BURGOWNE ENTERTAINED BAND

Rocco Saracina, conductor of the Saracina Virtuoso Concert Band, received a note from Commodore Burgoyne at 7:00 o'clock Sunday morning requesting him to get the members of the band together and bring them to his home to hear four new compositions on his pipe organ. The musicians responded with alacrity and enjoyed the time very delightfully from 10:00 to 12:00 o'clock. Commodore Burgoyne entertaining them, in addition to the music, with cigars and refreshments.

Let the Gazette-News follow you to your northern home. It will keep you posted on the doings in Daytona and vicinity during the summer. One dollar will bring to you every week during the next summer, or $1.50 will insure you receiving it for an entire year.

Had Him Puzzled.
 "A great many people have one time and another declared that I am the double of someone," stated J. Fuller Gloom, "but the deuce of it is that no two of them ever agree on the person whom I resemble." —Kans City Journal.

THE WEATHER

FOR FLORIDA: Fair tonight and Tuesday; rise of temperature in north and central portions; winds, moderate, southerly.Optimist Department, Devoted to Cheering Up "The Land of Sunshine."

Monday's a bad day for the newspaper man. Monday's a bad day for the Weather Man. Yep, the bally editors won't give us a chance. They're always yellin' about space. I've got a peach of a rhyme, but I've got to stick it away in obscurity until tomorrow. There isn't space for it! Gee, these editors are a thorn in the side. They go and write a column of stuff 'bout what is happening in far-off Europe and "kill" perfectly good news like you see displayed in the "Optimist Department." Curses on the press!

Well, I burrowed out enough room to stick this in. It's stolen, but it's better'n nothing:

"Jingle's always a jingle,
No matter what you say;
And here's your little jingle,
It's all I'll write today."

TWO DAYTONA MEN IN JAIL AT MIAMI ON CHARGE OF MURDER

AFTER NATION-WIDE CHASE JIM BUTLER FINALLY ARRESTED

CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF PROMINENT MIAMI LAWYER
AND HIS DAUGHTER IN NOVEMBER, 1914.

After being sought from one end of the country to the other, Jim Butler, a resident of Daytona, is now in jail in Miami on the charge of murdering A. A. Boggs, a prominent lawyer of that city, and Miss Marjorie Boggs, in November, 1914, and Chas. Mayberry, also of Daytona who is charged with being an accomplice of Butler in the crime, occupies another cell in the Miami jail.

Sheriff Hardie passed through Daytona Saturday night at 5:10 o'clock with Butler in his custody. He wired ahead to Deputy Sheriff T. O. Milton to arrest Mayberry and meet the train with him. Mr. Milton followed instructions, and took Mayberry into custody. When the train stopped at Daytona, Mayberry was turned over to Sheriff Hardie, and the trio proceeded to Miami, both prisoners being heavily ironed.

The crime for which the two men were arrested was one of the most heinous in the history of Dade county, and was prompted by the motive of robbery. According to the confession of Mayberry, the two went to the country home of Mr. Boggs for the purpose of robbing it. Butler entered, while Mayberry remained on guard outside. Mr. Boggs, who was home alone, heard Butler while he was in the act of robbing the house, and the lawyer was struck down and murdered in cold blood. As Butler was making his escape Miss Marjorie Boggs, the only daughter, came into the house on her return from a dance, and she too, was murdered. Butler then set the place on fire to cover up the crime, so Mayberry says.

Butler was captured in Virginia. Mayberry made a confession to Sheriff Smith at Deland, while in jail on a forgery charge, and since that time the country has been searched for Butler. He was located several times but each time made his escape. Butler's wife is now in Miami, but made her home in Daytona until a short time ago. Since her husband has been the object of the country-wide search, Mrs. Butler has given birth to a son.

Entertained Friends at Birthday Party

Miss Jean Frances Conrad entertained fifty of her little friends Saturday afternoon in honor of her tenth birthday. Through the kindness of Mr.
Burgoyne, who most cordially extended the use of the Burgoyne casino and the services of the band from 3 o'clock until 4:30 the little ones enjoyed dancing.

The party opened with a grand march led by golden haired Jean Frances and Banta Hilyard, followed by the little guests. This was so pretty and so thoroughly enjoyed by the onlookers, that the march was repeated.
This time Miss Jean Frances leading with Robert Wallace. After the march the boys and girls enjoyed dancing until 4:30, when they departed for the Conrad home on Orange avenue, there to enjoy refreshments. A huge birthday cake with ten candles burning brightly, was cut by the little hostess, and each of the little guests received a share.

the second and Mrs. Fred Niver, the third.

After the card game a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.
Another card party is being given this afternoon by Mrs. Bohannon and Mrs. Hankins.

Shall Women Propose?

Of course women should propose, it is women who change their entire lives by matrimony; it is women who take on colossal responsibility by matrimony. The woman should surely be allowed to choose the man for whom she feels herself able to work and give.
Men propose; men have had it all in their own hands up to now, and if they have married the wrong woman they have only themselves to blame for it.

Dickens Carnival adn Ball Prove a cos

Unique in character, full of character, too, for every conceivable character in Dickens works were represented, was the very successful Dickens ball given in the Casino Burgoyne Saturday evening by the Civic department of the Palmetto club. It was a gorgeous affair, nothing like it ever having been seen in Daytona before.
No detail was spared to make it a glorious success, and it was successful to the last detail.

The ball opened by a grand march,
led by Mrs. Mitchell and Mr. Hinsky, followed by Mrs. Stanley and Mr. Ballough with a long procession of couples in Dickens costumes, after which a square dance was enjoyed. This was followed by a Virginia reel, both dances being under the direction of Mr. Ballough, then everybody danced until midnight. Music was furnished by the Saracino band until ten o'clock when it was relieved by an orchestra composed of orchestras from the hotels.

This brilliant affair closes the carnival which was held in the Palmetto clubhouse Thursday and Friday, and much praise is due Mrs. Mitchell and Miss Edith Newell, together with the members of the Civic department who made the whole affair a success by their untiring effort.

The proceeds of the carnival will be devoted in part to the building fund of the Palmetto club, part to the Casino Burgoyne chair fund, and part to the playground for the children.

were tastefully decorated for the occasion and there were six tables of bridge and five hundred. Punch was served during the evening and the awarded to George Couversier, of Babylon, N. Y., and John Hayes, of Johnstown, N. Y.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE HEART OF JENNIFER,"
AT THE CRESCENT TODAY

Hazel Dawn, one of the screen's most beautiful and charming stars, also proves herself an actress of genuine dramatic power in the Famous Players Film company's appealing photo-adaptation of "The Heart of Jennifer," by Edith Barnard Delano, as shown at the Crescent theater today.

"The Heart of Jennifer" is the story of a woman's strong love for her husband, which prompts her to place upon herself the guilt of the crime committed by his sister. In the role of Jennifer, Hazel Dawn suggests with infinite tenderness and pathos the heroic fortitude of the sacrificing wife. "The Heart of Jennifer" is a photoplay that conforms with the highest standard of the Famous Players Film Company.

"THE BECKONING FLAME"
AT THE CRYSTAL TODAY

A brief story of "The Beckoning Flame," which is the attraction at the Crystal today:

Harry Dickson (Henry Woodruff), who is an English deputy commissioner in India, rescues with the aid of his servant a nobleman's daughter, Janira (Tsuru Aoki), just as she is being forced to sacrifice herself on the pyre of her husband. It was customary in the early days of English rule in India for the widow of a man to mount the burning pile of wood on which her husband was being consumed. Dickson keeps the girl at his bungalow in the garb of a boy servant. Janira suffers anguish when Dickson neglects her for Elsa Arlington, a former sweetheart, who has arrived on a visit from England. Ram Dass, the father of Janira, makes a complaint to Dickson's superior that he has kidnapped the girl. A body of police are sent to Dickson's home to get the girl. To protect the honor of Dickson, the girl sets fire to the bungalow and is burned beyond recognition when the building is destroyed.

"THE CACTUS BLOSSOM" AT ARCADE MONDAY

"The Cactus Blossom" is the attraction at the Arcade today:

Dave Foster and his daughter, Beulah, live alone on a claim which Foster has staked out. Slowly the prospector is coming to realize that his claim is worthless. Then by chance, Foster befriends Chegup, a wandering Indian, who has fallen into the hands of the rough element of a nearby cattle town. The Indian shows his gratitude to the man who has befriended him, and in return for Foster's kindness, Chegup offers to take him to a secret gulch, which he knows to be rich in gold. Father and daughter and the old Indian establish a new home and, true to the Redskin's prediction, Foster strikes it rich. But an unprincipled Mexican follows them. Not far from the new claim is a cow camp of evil reputation. The tough element is led by one Reed Avery, though the real evil genius of the settlement is Duke Wilson, who operates a gambling hall. The Mexican who has followed Foster, plays into the hand of Wilson.

Meanwhile the cowboys are excited by the presence of Beulah. All are anxious to make the acquaintance of the young woman whom they have come to call "The Cactus Blossom." Reed Avery is torn by conflicting emotions. His baser impulses emphasize the alluring charms of the girl while the instinct is deep in his heart to pay, and compel others to pay, the gentle respect rightfully due the young woman. At first, Reed's manner to the girl is the manner he has shown to all women of his acquaintance, but her rebuff of him is so complete that he unconsciously goes to the other extreme and is rendered dumb and awkward in the presence of "The Cactus Blossom." Beulah laughs and he mistakes her meaning. Thinking the laugh a scornful one he vows that she shall pay for it with a kiss. Beulah handles the crisis well, and her actions completely transforms Avery, and he becomes the staunch companion of the girl.

Fighting to protect her from his rough companions, Reed is wounded. Lying at death's door, his head propped on his saddle, Beulah kneels beside him and imprints a willing kiss on his lips. Every has won, but he has also lost for the smile that brightens his face remains transfixed in a mask of death.

The mutual traveler in "See America First," showing Chicago in its varied industries, its parks and its beautiful drive along Lake Michigan, is the Mecca of the pretty mutual traveler. The tremendous stockyards, the library, the Field Museum, situated in Grant Park, and facing Michigan Boulevard, Lincoln Park, with its zoo and its grounds for tennis and golf. The Goodrich Steamship company's docks; the University of Chicago, and Northwestern University at Evanston, and many of Chicago's most beautiful residences and clubs, are included in the Mutual's scenic.

The second half of this reel is devoted to Harry Palmer's funny cartoon, "Keeping Up With the Joneses." Also a thrilling comedy, "Hilda's Husky Helper."

"JULIUS CAESAR" AT THE NEW DAYTONA TODAY

"Remember that a false move spoils an entire scene," says George Kleine, the film magnate, who recently startled the motion picture world with his mammoth spectacle, "Julius Caesar," in an interesting discussion of the troubles that beset his producers in handling the 20,000 people appearing in the great "mob" scenes. "Remember that aside from the cast of principals nearly all of these 20,000 people were untrained picture folk and that many of them had never been nearer a motion picture than the front seat in a 'Cinematograph show.' So it was a big task for Director Guazzoni to impress each and every one with the gravity of the work and the necessity for absolute obedience. We needed every man, woman and child in those big scenes, and did not want to discharge anyone. Yet it was certainly aggravating when some apish fellow would grin into the eye of the camera and, in the lexicon of the craft, 'crab' the scene. And remember, too, if the director did not catch him in the act and the scene slipped by to be found later when the film had been developed and printed, it then became necessary to reassemble all those people, pay them for another day's work and take the scene all over again or throw away the spoiled section."

CENTRAL PARK TO BE NEW SUBDIVISION

A new subdivision will be opened tomorrow when A. J. Malby will put upon the market for private sale, 25 lots in "Central Park." Central Park, as the name indicates, is located in the heart of the city, convenient to postoffice, schools, churches and business places. This subdivision, of which Mr. Malby has the exclusive handling, is located on Orange avenue, west of Ridgewood avenue, and is very nicely situated. The prices placed upon the lots is said to be very attractive, and they will no doubt sell readily, as there is not much property close in as these lots, now being offered for sale.

Recognize Superiority.
In Yellowstone park, the brown bears retreat hastily from the hotel garbage piles when black bears heave in sight, and the latter, in turn, promptly get themselves gone at the approach of the silvertips. It is an interesting little social system, established on the primordial basis of fear.

COLUMBIAN TREATY TO BE SENT TO ITS GRAVE

(By International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Arrangements are being made in the senate to send the Columbian treaty to its grave sometime this week. The opposition has been strengthened by the news that the said treaty is almost sure to be rejected by Columbia because the indemnity has been cut to $15,000,000 and the apology clause modified. Vote on the measure will be taken the latter part of the week, but its failure is generally conceded.
